BRISAS GROUP

believe in travel

Dear Travel Partners,

Our Preferred Travel Group ideology begins with a simple yet powerful phrase: We Believe in Travel. This belief resonates deeply not only with our company but with me personally. Throughout my life, I have seen how travel builds bridges, connecting people across cultures and offering transformative experiences that spark lasting change.

During my travels, I am often struck by the feelings that overwhelm me and the overpowering reflection I have as I return home. I am filled with the energy that comes from setting foot in a place for the first time and the exploration of a new destination, forming new relationships and expanding my heart to make room for the people and places I encountered. At the same time, I am drawn to home, urging the plane to go just a little faster so I can walk through my own front door and be surrounded with the familiar, bringing a better version of myself back to the people I love after the journey.

I started last year with an ambitious plan to visit every corner of the globe. In accomplishing that, I am filled with immense gratitude for the many connections and experiences these past few months have brought. From revisiting familiar places to exploring new destinations, each journey has left a lasting impact on me. It's that belief that has guided me as I have become deeply dedicated to making travel a force for good.

We released our Climate Action Plan at the end of last year, marking a significant step in our journey toward a more sustainable future and reflecting our dedication to making a meaningful impact through our business.

While we may not have all the answers, we are committed to learning, adapting, and educating ourselves and others.

Amidst the ever-changing political, social, and economic landscape, the positive power of human connection remains constant. Travel builds connections, fostering relationships and creating transformative experiences that inspire positive change.

On behalf of our global team, I want to express my sincere gratitude for your continued support. We are so excited by all the opportunities the months ahead will bring and invite you to join in our love of travel by tagging social media photos of you or your clients enjoying experiences at any of our hotels around the world with #ThePreferredLife and #BelieveInTravel.

With Gratitude,
