

10 Great Hotel Rooftop Bars in Mexico

Regardless of where you choose to vacation or take a business trip in Mexico, rooftop bars are one of the best places to enjoy the view and get a good overview of the destination. We've already explored the best hotel rooftop bars in the Caribbean and the best hotel rooftop bars in Central and South America, so now it's time to take a look at where to grab a cocktail with a view in Mexico.

It's no surprise that Mexico City, the nation's capital dotted with countless tall buildings, is home to the greatest concentration of hotel rooftop bars. But there are a surprising number of Mexico hotels around the nation — even in beach vacation destinations — where you can enjoy the view. Here are a few of the best.

CANCUN HOTELS WITH ROOFTOP BARS

Canopy by Hilton Cancun La Isla

Wander Rooftop is the most scenic place for a drink at the new Canopy by Hilton Cancun La Isla, and the venue often hosts live music performances on its stage. Wander Rooftop is also known for its rather unique happenings; among the recent events to take place on the rooftop are a "dog meet-up" and a five-day yoga and music wellness retreat.

GUADALAJARA HOTELS WITH ROOFTOP BARS

Doubletree by Hilton Guadalajara Centro Historico

This downtown Guadalajara hotel, which had been part of the NH Collection chain, has been reflagged as the Doubletree by Hilton Guadalajara Centro Historico. It's home to Piso 7, one of the best places to enjoy a rooftop view of the nearby cathedral and other historic buildings downtown. With its diverse international menu, the venue is an attractive place for drinks as well as breakfast, lunch and dinner.

MEXICO CITY HOTELS WITH ROOFTOP BARS

Condesa DF

One of the trendiest boutique hotels in Mexico City's hip Condesa neighborhood, Condesa DF offers rooftop views at La Terraza, a triangle-shaped venue known for its sophisticated cocktails as well as sushi created by Chef Keisuke Harada. The hotel is part of the stylish Grupo Habita portfolio.

Downtown Mexico

My husband and I have a tradition whenever we visit Mexico City: on the first day that we go to the historic city center, we stop for a drink at the rooftop bar at Downtown Mexico, another style-conscious property by Grupo Habita. It's never crowded, away from the more touristy rooftops closer to the Zócalo, and has terrific cocktails.

Hilton Mexico City Reforma

I personally loved staying in a suite with a city view at the Hilton Mexico City Reforma, but even if you're not staying at this lovely hotel, you can still spend some time at La Terraza Alameda, a go-to venue if you're craving an open-air space to enjoy a cocktail while admiring the sights of downtown Mexico City. The venue hosts different themes on some nights, including Taco Mondy and Grilled Burger Friday, and the recently revamped menu also includes cheese platters and artisanal pizzas.

Best Western Hotel Majestic

The name Best Western may not be the first that comes to mind when it comes to rooftop bars, but the Best Western Hotel Majestic has a prized location on Mexico City's Zocalo, the main city square. La Terraza restaurant offers excellent views of the square, the cathedral and multiple historic government buildings.
