(ENVI Sisini Serengeti)

Beyond Green welcomed nine new member properties to its portfolio between October 1 and December 31, 2024. Among these are eight andBeyond lodges in South Africa and Tanzania's ENVI Sisini Serengeti. With this announcement, Beyond Green's network of sustainable hotels, resorts and lodges now includes over 50 member properties across 22 countries.

The latest member properties in the Beyond Green portfolio include:

ENVI Sisini Serengeti (Nyabogati, Tanzania) – Opened in July 2024, this luxury camp is surrounded by the landscapes of Serengeti National Park. It offers access to the “Big Five” and the Great Migration through guided game drives, nature walks and hot air balloon rides. Guests can also enjoy wellness treatments, a pool and farm-to-table meals. Cultural experiences include visits to the Ikoma Cultural Center, while conservation efforts, such as the “Adopt a Tree” program, invite guests to contribute to habitat restoration.

andBeyond Phinda Mountain Lodge (Phinda Private Game Reserve, South Africa) – Overlooking the game reserve, the lodge provides views of the Lebombo foothills and access to a region thriving with cheetahs and rare black rhinos. Guests enjoy early-morning game drives, conservation-focused activities such as a rhino, elephant or pangolin research experience, and adventures including ocean excursions and sleeping under the stars.

andBeyond Phinda Rock Lodge (Phinda Private Game Reserve, South Africa) – Carved into the cliffs overlooking the Zululand Valley, this lodge offers six stone suites, each with a private plunge pool. Guests can assist researchers in collaring elephants, notching rhinos for identification or downloading data from a tagged ground pangolin. The lodge also supports an environmental education program in partnership with Wild Impact, connecting local students with ecotourism through classroom activities and educational game drives.

andBeyond Phinda Vlei Lodge (Phinda Private Game Reserve, South Africa) – Known for its elephant collaring projects and commitment to wetland preservation, this property delivers an intimate safari experience. Its six thatched suites have private lap pools and game-viewing decks. Tailored adventures, such as birding safaris, black rhino tracking and “Sleepout Under the Stars,” offer insights into conservation efforts protecting this biodiverse region. Community initiatives, including tertiary education scholarships and vocational training, further enhance the lodge’s positive local impact.

andBeyond Phinda Homestead (Phinda Private Game Reserve, South Africa) – This private, sole-use villa set within 73,800 acres of wilderness provides a personalized safari experience ideal for families and small groups. Guided by a dedicated ranger, guests can search for the “Big Five” and over 436 bird species through game drives. Guests have the opportunity to enjoy a privately hosted, interactive experience that will include community-led projects facilitated by Wild Impact, andBeyond’s community and conservation development partner.

andBeyond Phinda Zuka Lodge (Phinda Private Game Reserve, South Africa) – Tucked within the Zuka Hills, this lodge has four thatched suites and offers a variety of bespoke activities, such as pangolin tagging, walking safaris, turtle adventures and beach visits. Guests can engage with the region’s culture through interactive experiences that celebrate local crafts, traditions and the heritage of nearby communities.

andBeyond Kirkman’s Kamp (Sabi Sand Private Nature Reserve, South Africa) – This restored 1920s homestead offers 12 cottages with private verandas overlooking the Sand River. Set in a nature reserve known for its leopard sightings, andBeyond Kirkman’s Kamp grants access to 26,000 acres of “Big Five” territory bordering Kruger National Park. Expert-led safaris feature sensitive off-roading for up-close wildlife encounters. Twice-daily game drives, nature walks, croquet, tennis and the “WILDchild” program engage guests of all ages in the wonders of the bush.

andBeyond Phinda Forest Lodge (Phinda Private Game Reserve, South Africa) – Situated in the heart of the Sand Forest, this eco-friendly lodge is designed to harmonize with its natural surroundings. Its 16 glass-walled suites, elevated on stilts, invite guests to connect with the forest’s wildlife, including the elusive suni and red duiker.

andBeyond Tengile River Lodge (Sabi Sand Private Nature Reserve, South Africa) – Positioned along a secluded bend of the Sand River, this property offers nine suites with private lap pools. Guests can discover the Sabi Sand Nature Reserve's biodiversity, including over 500 bird species, 110 reptiles and 45 fish species. Additionally, village visits provide insight into rural African life, with opportunities to support community-led initiatives which promote education, entrepreneurship and sustainable development.

As part of Preferred Travel Group, Beyond Green's parent company, each of these new member hotels participate in I Prefer Hotel Rewards loyalty program.
