Meet VERANA, Mexico's Best Kept Boutique Hotel Secret

When it's time to get away this is the place. VERANA a luxe boutique resort in Mexico offers an immersive experience into the adventure of serenity, seclusion, and relaxation. Seriously.

VERANA was created by two Hollywood stylists with a machete and a penchant for living en plein air upon a jungle overlooking the sea. Emerging from a modern wonder of environmental engineering, their idea took form and evolved into an adults-only luxury boutique resort perfect for a secluded jungle getaway.

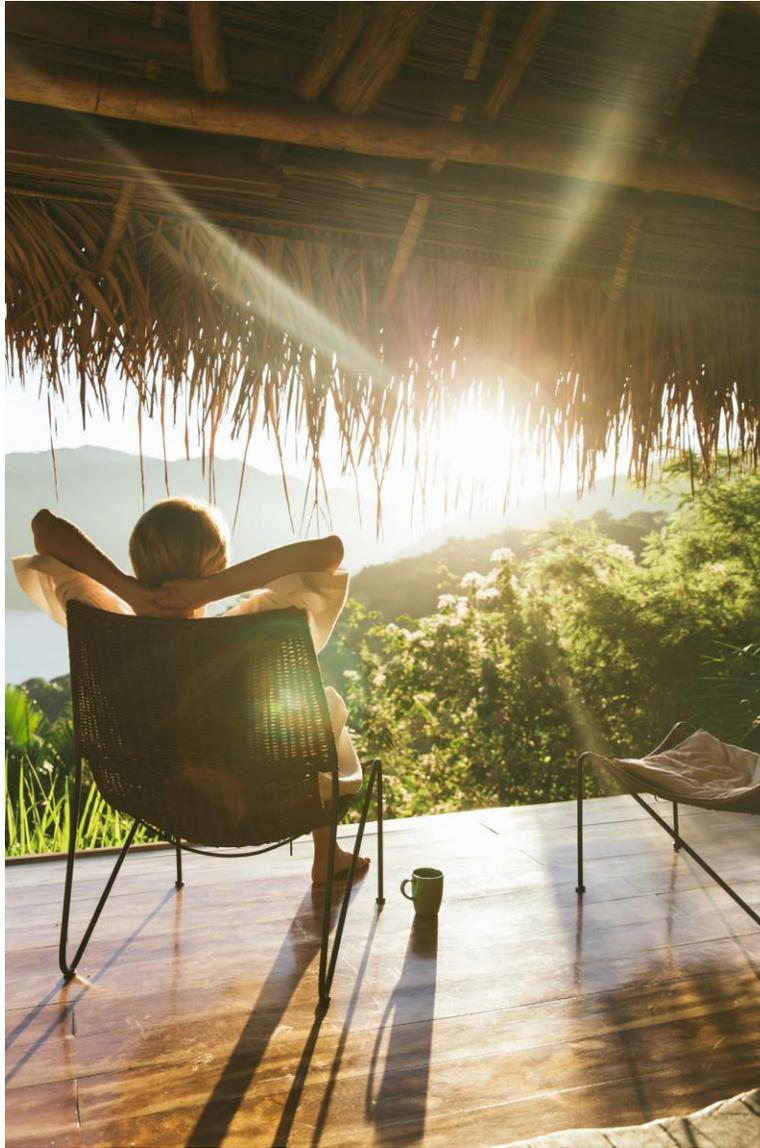

Less than an hour from Puerto Vallarta, VERANA overlooks the crescent-shaped Bay of Banderas and the iconic fishing village of Yelapa with panoramic mountain views to the east. Reachable only by boat, this chic haven is secluded elemental luxury at its best.

Forget what you think about hotels, VERANA is nothing like it. Instead, it's an evolving vision. Self-described as “a place imagined and then found” it was originally a single house. Evolving from a passion for design and adventure into ten hand-built unique gazebo-style homes perched atop the verdant Mexican jungle. Most are open-air and entirely private like the Teahouse with a hanging terrace and private plunge pool. Yet for those who enjoy the great indoors, the Studio is an enclosed one-room wonder with floor-to-ceiling windows, stunning décor that only a Hollywood stylist can pull off, and a magnificent ocean view.

Arriving at VERANA is your initiation into total escape. Board your private water taxi from the colorful and charming Boca de Tomatlan. A stunning 45-minute boat ride later, gliding past untouched jungle pops of orange dot the jungle you pull into VERANA's private dock. Now, you're home. Along the way, keep an eye out for manta rays and dolphins. They are all around you.

True to its handbuilt nature, mules cart your luggage up the hill to your room. As you travel on foot along a stone path to your boutique jungle paradise, VERANA reveals itself to you. Stylish terraced layers of relaxation await. The restaurant and bar overlook the sea. A library with a bocce ball court. A hand-carved stone pool. The Jungle Spa and myriad of chic chill spots invite you to relax and enjoy. At VERANA hours aren't counted by time. Instead, you let time slip away between perfectly blended margaritas and the setting or rising sun

Each of VERANA's ten boutique homes exhibits individual character and personality. An elegant earthy design pervades - the basis being symmetry, space, and the saturated chromatic colors of Mexico. Bright orange, red, pink, yellow, and blue, shades that brilliantly pop in contrast to the vibrant colors of the jungle.
