

Preferred Hotels & Resorts Celebrates 107 Member Hotels Honored with 2025 MICHELIN Keys Distinction

NEW YORK, NEW YORK – October 24, 2025: Preferred Hotels and Resorts, the world's largest independent hotel brand, is proud to celebrate its 107 member hotels that have been recognized in the global MICHELIN Keys selection for 2025. This distinction marks a new era in hospitality, as The MICHELIN Guide – internationally renowned for its restaurant selections and Star ratings – sets a global benchmark for hotel excellence, spotlighting properties that deliver truly outstanding guest experiences.

The MICHELIN Key distinction is the result of a thorough, independent evaluation by MICHELIN Guide Inspectors, who review thousands of hotels worldwide. Each property is assessed on five essential criteria: design and architecture, quality and consistency of service, unique character, value for money, and its connection to the local area. Only hotels that excel across all these areas are awarded One, Two, or Three MICHELIN Keys, signifying a truly outstanding guest experience.

“We’re thrilled to celebrate our 107 member hotels recognized in The MICHELIN Guide’s first-ever global Keys selection,” said Michelle Woodley, President for Preferred Hotels & Resorts. “Our honorees span more than 30 countries worldwide, reflecting the incredible diversity and spirit of independent hospitality that defines our brand. This prestigious recognition is a powerful endorsement of our members’ dedication to creating memorable, authentic experiences for travelers – whether in iconic cities, remote escapes, or hidden gems around the world.”

Across its global portfolio, Preferred Hotels & Resorts is proud to represent 107 properties that have earned MICHELIN Keys for delivering extraordinary guest experiences. Among these, four member hotels received coveted Three MICHELIN Keys, twenty-nine were awarded Two MICHELIN Keys, and seventy-four earned One MICHELIN Key – each distinction reflecting a commitment to excellence, individuality, and authentic hospitality.
