

POSITIVE OUTLOOK DESTINATIONS GUIDE

Welcoming Wanderlugt

There are few moments in our busy lives when we have the opportunity to reflect on just how precious life is, what is most important to us and how we want to spend our time. Although we've endured unprecedented effects from the COVID-19 pandemic, it is important to remember that this too shall pass, and when it does, the world will again be yours to explore. We hope you use the pages of our Destinations Special Feature to reignite your wanderlust and start dreaming up your next vacation. It's never too early to begin planning-because just like a little black dress, traveling never goes out of style!

JALISCO -

You know Cabo San Lucas and Cancun, but for added seclusion, discover the locals-only vibe along Mexico's Pacific coast in southern Jalisco.

STAY: Simply put, Cuixmala is one of the most uniquely realized resorts in the world. Brightly colored European, Mexican and Moorish architecture is cocooned inside a UNESCO biosphere reserve teeming with wildlife, including a small colony of zebras. There are various guest room options—from quaint casitas to massive villas with private pools. cuixmala.com

ENRICH: Take a day trip to the small coastal village of La Manzanilla. You can go hiking or fishing or just relax by the water, but a tour of the mangroves is a must, especially to see wildlife, including a variety of birds and crocodiles.

PLAY: Go golfing at or learn how to surf near Cuixmala. Then head to the resort community of Careyes to hobnob with wellheeled locals for drinks at Playa Rosa or to go horseback riding on the beach. careyes.com

UNWIND: Start the day with sunrise yoga at Cuixmala, then while away on its private beach before having a massage featuring essential oils and other ingredients sourced from the farm.

TASTE: Cuixmala's biodynamic farm services the three on-site restaurants, including fine dining at La Loma. For a more local off-site experience, there's La Viuda, a modest old-school Jaliscan seafood restaurant serving everything from whole fried fish to grilled octopus.
